

News

September 22, 2003

Founders of Local Specialty Food Company Here's to the Cook! Featured at Taste of Roscoe Village

Northfield, IL – Longtime Roscoe Village resident Sandra Hartman and Barbara Giannetti, co-founders of Here's to the Cook!, dazzled a large and enthusiastic audience as featured guest chefs during the second annual Taste of Roscoe Village.

The pair demonstrated an impressive array of appetizers and entrees, all created from products in their line of specialty foods. Items prepared by the duo included an assortment of artichoke, sun dried tomato and tomato-basil bruschetta, as well as a sumptuous goat cheese and caramelized onion pizza with cilantro pesto sauce.

Here's to the Cook! features over 25 all-natural sauces, marinades, soups, dressings, and dessert toppings. These unique, delicious and versatile products take the most difficult and time-consuming steps out of meal preparation.

Here's to the Cook! is a creator of specialty foods that celebrates the art of cooking with pure, fresh ingredients. So natural are its products that consumers can convincingly pass them off as their own. Founders Sandra Hartman and Barbara Giannetti create the extensive collection of specialty marinades, sauces, soups, spreads and toppings from recipes honed over years of experience. To learn more visit www.HeresToTheCook.com.

For more information, contact Barbara Giannetti for Here's to the Cook!, at (847) 912-9412 or Barbara@HeresToTheCook.com.

###

address 276 Riverside Drive, Suite 100, Northfield, Illinois 60093

phone / fax (p) 847-956-6666 / (f) 425-795-2992

email Questions@HeresToTheCook.com